CTAT methods

Tables for a "Complete, Transparent, Accurate and Timely account" (CTAT) are now mandatory for all revised submissions. The aim is to enhance the reproducibility of methods.

- Refer to the CTAT in the main text as 'Supplementary CTAT Table'
- Do not add subheadings
- Add as many rows as needed to include all information
- Only include one item per row

If the CTAT form is not relevant to your study, please outline the reasons why:
