It is now possible to submit to Entrez SRA a search time and have it return a table of hits organized by SRA object type. Here is an example with the general text search term “HMP”:

This query returned hits in both the open (public access) and protected (controlled access) SRAs. Click through any of these hit links in order to access Entrez reports for each type of object.